Alumna Appointed Dean

For the first time in its 45-year history a Manor graduate has been appointed academic dean at Manor Junior College, announced Sr. M. Cecilia, OSBM, president.

Sally Kuzma Mydlowec of Feasterville, PA a 1966 graduate of Manor began her duties as academic dean July 1. As dean, Ms. Mydlowec is a member of the Manor Administrative Council. Mydlowec's responsibilities include: curriculum development and review, faculty recruitment and development, review and assessment of student academic performance, management of instructional programs, budgeting and planning for instruction and academic support, management of the College computer center, the Basileiad Library and the Manor Dental Health Center.

Ms. Mydlowec is a 1969 graduate of Temple University. She also received her Masters from Temple University graduating Summa Cum Laude. Mydlowec has taught biology, anatomy and physiology for over 20 years in the following school districts: Central Bucks School District, Philadelphia School District and Centennial School District.

Sally Mydlowec and Sr. M. Cecilia, OSBM
Academic Dean President

Her most recent teaching position was with the Central Bucks School District teaching academic and practical Biology.

Mydlowec holds membership in various professional associations including: National Association of Biology Teachers, National Science Teachers Association, Bucks County Science Teachers Association, Bucks County Biology Teachers Association and Pennsylvania Science Teachers Association.

In addition, Mydlowec has served the MJC Board of Trustees for a total of 17 years. She served as the Board Chairperson of Student Affairs and was a member of Manor's Middle States Accreditation Committee. She also chaired the Education and recruiting Committee of the Advisory Board.

From the President

Dear Alumni:

In the 1992-93 Academic Year, Manor will celebrate its 45th anniversary. As part of this celebration, I ask all of you to increase your ties with Manor and join with the Manor community in the events and activities scheduled throughout the year and especially the Annual Springtime Gala Dinner Dance, April 23, 1993.

As part of this 45th celebration, the Council of President's Associates and I plan to invite qualified Alumni to serve on the Council of President's Associates and share in the Council's activities. The qualification requirements include: enthusiasm for Manor, willingness to reach out to other alumni, and a willingness to serve on the Council and work to achieve Council goals.

If you are interested in being considered for a selection on this important committee of Manor, please forward your name and address to my attention as soon as possible.

Thank you for your cooperation and I ask your continued support and cooperation in Manor's 45th Anniversary Year.

Sincerely,

Sr. M. Cecilia, OSBM
President Manor Jr. College

Small Business Resource Center Opens at Manor

A new Small Business Resource Center offering services to businesses in the Bucks, Montgomery and Northeast Phila. area has been opened by Manor Junior College, announced Sr. M. Cecilia, OSBM, president of Manor.
